

As a subscriber to XM radio, I don't understand why the FCC has a problem in allowing them to deliver information over a band for which they are appropriately licensed. Please don't let the NAB hold back progress. Thank you.